ART NEWS

M. F. Husain's Untitled (Gram Yatra) sold at Christie's for 13.8$ million in New York in March, making it the most expensive work of modern Indian art ever publicly auctioned.

That amount, which includes fees, shattered the auction house's estimate of 2.5$ million–3.5$ million and was more than four times the artist's previous record of 3.1$ million, which was set by his painting Untitled (Reincarnation) last September at Sotheby's in London.

TRENDS

In 2025, art trends are set to embrace oversized abstracts, featuring vibrant brushstrokes and bold geometric shapes. These striking pieces will dominate interiors, serving as confident focal points that add energy and personality to any space. Embrace the boldness of these dynamic artworks to elevate your surroundings!
